7 UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
8 WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
9 AT SEATTLE

10 ROBERT KELLY, ERYN LEARNED, AND 11 KERRY WANO, on behalf of themselves 12 and all others similarly situated,

13 Plaintiffs,

14 vs.

15 THE MCCLATCHY COMPANY, LLC, a 16 Delaware corporation,

17 Defendant.

18 Civil Action No. 3:21-cv-05468-BHS-
19 DWC

20 DEFENDANT'S MOTION TO 21 TRANSFER VENUE

22 NOTE ON MOTION CALENDAR:
23 September 17, 2021

24 ORAL ARGUMENT REQUESTED

25 Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1404(a), Defendant The McClatchy Company, LLC 26 (“McClatchy”) respectfully requests the Court transfer the above-entitled action to the United 27 States District Court for the Eastern District of California in accordance with the forum-selection clause in the Terms of Service that Plaintiffs Robert Kelly, Eryn Learned, and Kerry Wano agreed to be bound by when they subscribed to a McClatchy newspaper (“Plaintiffs”).

28 FACTUAL BACKGROUND

29 McClatchy owns and operates newspapers throughout the United States, including but not 30 limited to The Olympian, The Idaho Statesman, and The Kansas City Star. See Declaration of 31 Maria Ravera (hereinafter “Ravera Decl.”) ¶ 2; ECF No. 1 ¶¶ 42, 54, 69. Individuals who subscribe 32 to a newspaper owned by McClatchy agree to be bound to “Terms of Service”—whether by 33 electronically signing the Terms of Service, agreeing to be bound to them via telephone, or by 34 responding to a direct mailing—and further confirm agreement to be bound by them by paying 35

1 their subscription fees. See Ravera Decl. ¶ 3. These Terms of Service are identical for each 2 newspaper, except for the information specific to the newspaper. See id.

3 When an individual subscribes in person, this agreement to be bound to the Terms of 4 Service is confirmed by the subscribing individual electronically checking an unchecked check 5 box immediately adjacent to the following statement:

6 I have read and agree to the Terms of Service. Our content is delivered to you by 7 various methods and formats. For your convenience, your subscription will 8 automatically renew after the initial term at the current rate unless you tell us to 9 cancel. We reserve the right to substitute the delivery and format of your print 10 subscription with only an eEdition (digital replica of a print edition) at any time.
 11 Notice of delivery and format changes, except those caused by inclement weather, 12 will be given at least 30 days in advance.

13 See Ravera Decl. Ex. 1 at 2. The Terms of Service are linked to this disclosure and the check box 14 must be checked in order for the individual to complete the subscription transaction. See Ravera 15 Decl. ¶ 4.

16 For those who subscribe via telephone, the Terms of Service are read to them prior to 17 completing the subscription. See id. ¶ 5. For those who subscribe via direct mailing, a printed link 18 to the Terms of Service is included within the disclosures. See id. ¶ 6. A link to the Terms of 19 Service is also present in each renewal bill, whether provided via hard copy or electronically. See 20 Ravera Decl. Ex. 2 at 2.

21 Each of the Plaintiffs in this case has alleged that they subscribed to a McClatchy 22 newspaper through one of the various available means, tacitly admitting that they agreed to be 23 bound by McClatchy's Terms of Service and the arbitration provision therein. See ECF No. 1 ¶¶ 24 42, 54, 69. Material to Plaintiffs' Complaint, since 2015, McClatchy's Terms of Service have 25 included the following arbitration provision, with the newspaper specific information auto-filled 26 into the form Terms of Service:

27 10.3. Dispute Resolution and Arbitration

28 You and [PAPER_NAME] agree to the following dispute resolution process for 1 any legal controversy or legal claim arising out of or relating to these Terms of 2 Service, [SITE_NAME], any subscription to [PAPER_NAME] or [SITE_NAME] 3 or any other aspect of our relationship (“Subject Legal Claim”).

4 In an attempt to find the quickest and most efficient resolution of our issues, you 5 and [PAPER_NAME] agree to first discuss any issue informally for at least 30 6 days. To do that, please send your full name and contact information, your concern 7 and your proposed solution by email to us at: customerservice@mcclatchy.com. If 8 we should need to discuss an issue with you, we will contact you using the email 9 or mailing address on your account.

10 If we do not reach an agreed upon solution after our discussions for at least 30 days, 11 you and [PAPER_NAME] agree that any Subject Legal Claim that either of us may 12 have must be resolved through binding individual arbitration before the American 13 Arbitration Association using its Consumer Arbitration Rules. There are two 14 limited exceptions to this Dispute Resolution and Arbitration provision: (i) either 15 party may pursue in small claims court any action that is within that court’s 16 jurisdiction, as long as the case proceeds on an individual basis only; (ii) either 17 party may seek to enforce its patents, trademarks, copyrights or trade secrets in an 18 appropriate state or federal court.

19 To help resolve any issues between us promptly and directly, you and 20 [PAPER_NAME] agree to begin any arbitration within one year after a Subject 21 Legal Claim arises; otherwise, the Subject Legal Claim is waived. You and 22 [PAPER_NAME] also agree to arbitrate in each of our individual capacities only, 23 not as a representative or member of a class, and each of us expressly waives any 24 right to file a class action or seek relief on a class basis. All arbitration hearings 25 will be held in Sacramento, California. The parties agree that this Dispute 26 Resolution and Arbitration provision is subject to, and will be governed and 27 enforced under, the Federal Arbitration Act.

28 You may download a form Notice to initiate arbitration at www.adr.org. If you 29 initiate the arbitration, your arbitration fees will be limited to the filing fee set forth 30 in the AAA’s Consumer Rules. It is important that you understand that the 31 arbitrator’s decision will be binding and may be entered as a judgment in any court 32 of competent jurisdiction. If the arbitrator rules against [PAPER_NAME], in 33 addition to accepting whatever responsibility is ordered by the arbitrator, we think 34 it’s fair that [PAPER_NAME] reimburse your reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs, 35 regardless of who initiated the arbitration. In addition, if the arbitrator rules in 36 [PAPER_NAME]’s favor, it will not seek reimbursement of our attorney’s fees, 37 regardless of who initiated the arbitration.

1       The American Arbitration Association (AAA)'s Consumer Arbitration Rules cited in the 2 Terms of Service are available to the public free of charge and easily locatable at 3 <https://www.adr.org/sites/default/files/Consumer%20Rules.pdf>.

4       AAA's Consumer Arbitration Rules include the following provision:

5       Jurisdiction

6       (a) The arbitrator shall have the power to rule on his or her own jurisdiction, 7 including any objections with respect to the existence, scope, or validity of the arbitration agreement or to the arbitrability of any claim or counterclaim.

8       (b) The arbitrator shall have the power to determine the existence or validity of a 9 contract of which an arbitration clause forms a part. Such an arbitration clause shall 10 be treated as an agreement independent of the other terms of the contract. A 11 decision by the arbitrator that the contract is null and void shall not for that reason alone render invalid the arbitration clause.

12 Request for Judicial Notice ("RJN") Ex. 1 at 17. The current Consumer Arbitration Rules became 13 effective September 1, 2014, id. at 1, and, therefore, are the applicable Consumer Arbitration Rules 14 for Plaintiffs' claims.

15       On June 29, 2021, notwithstanding that Plaintiffs agreed that all Subject Legal Claims are 16 governed by the Terms of Service's arbitration provision, which includes a one-year limitations 17 period, Sacramento, California as the chosen venue, and a class action waiver, Plaintiffs filed a 18 Complaint in the Western District of Washington including claims that are time barred on behalf 19 of a nationwide class of individuals. ECF No. 1.

20       LEGAL STANDARD

21       "For the convenience of parties and witnesses, in the interest of justice, a district court may 22 transfer any civil action to any other district or division where it might have been brought or to 23 any district or division to which all parties have consented." 28 U.S.C. § 1404(a). Where such 24 transfer is made to enforce a contractual forum-selection clause, "a district court should ordinarily 25 transfer the case to the forum specified in that clause. Only under extraordinary circumstances 26

27 of the at-issue newspapers are appended to Ms. Ravera's declaration. See Ravera Decl. Exs. 4–6.

1 unrelated to the convenience of the parties should a § 1404(a) motion be denied.” Atl. Marine 2 Constr. Co. v. United States Dist. Court, 571 U.S. 49, 62 (2013).

3 When a forum-selection clause forms the basis for a Section 1404(a) motion, the standard 4 analysis is modified in three ways: (1) a plaintiff forfeits his or her choice of forum privilege and 5 “bears the burden of establishing that transfer to the forum for which the parties bargained is 6 unwarranted,” (2) a court “should not consider arguments about the parties’ private 7 interests . . . [but] may consider arguments about public-interest factors only,” and (3) “transfer of 8 venue will not carry with it the original venue’s choice-of-law rules.” Id. at 63–65.

9 ARGUMENT

10 The Terms of Service expressly require that that all “Subject Legal Claim[s],” defined as 11 “any legal controversy or legal claim arising out of or relating to these Terms of Service, 12 [SITE_NAME], any subscription to [PAPER_NAME] or [SITE_NAME] or any other aspect of 13 our relationship,” be resolved on an individual basis in an AAA arbitral forum in Sacramento, 14 California. See Ravera Decl. Ex. 3 at 9. However, since the rule in the Ninth Circuit appears to be 15 that a court may only compel arbitration within its jurisdiction, the proper procedure appears to be 16 to transfer this case to the Eastern District of California, where McClatchy may then file its motion 17 to compel arbitration, and the Eastern District of California will retain jurisdiction to enforce any 18 arbitral ruling. Transfer to the Eastern District of California is appropriate because Sacramento, 19 California is located within that District.

20 A. Arbitration in Sacramento is the Proper Forum to Resolve Plaintiffs’ Claims

21 Regardless of what substantive law applies, “both state and federal law strongly favor 22 arbitration and require all presumptions to be made in favor of arbitration.” Gandee v. LDL
Freedom Enters., Inc., 176 Wn.2d 598, 603, 293 P.3d 1197 (2013) (citing Zuver v. Airtouch Comm’ns, Inc., 153 Wn.2d 293, 301, 103 P.3d 753 (2004)); see also Moses H. Cone Mem’l Hosp.
v. Mercury Constr. Corp., 460 U.S. 1, 24, 103 S. Ct. 927, 74 L. Ed. 2d 765 (1983) (“Section 2 is a 26 congressional declaration of a liberal federal policy favoring arbitration agreements, 27 notwithstanding any state substantive or procedural policies to the contrary.”). “Courts must

1 indulge every presumption ‘in favor of arbitration, whether the problem at hand is the construction 2 of the contract language itself or an allegation of waiver, delay, or a like defense to arbitrability.’”

3 Adler v. Fred Lind Manor, 153 Wn.2d 331, 342 (2004) (citing Moses, 460 U.S. at 25).<sup>2</sup>

4 Here, the parties expressly agreed to four routes by which Subject Legal Claims would be 5 resolved: (1) informally, (2) on an individual basis through AAA arbitration in Sacramento, 6 California; (3) in a small claims court; or (4) in state or federal court for intellectual property 7 claims. Ravera Decl. Ex. 3 at 9. Plaintiffs have filed a formal complaint but are not alleging any 8 intellectual property claims and have not brought individual claims in a small claims court.
 9 Therefore, the only remaining agreed-upon option is to resolve any Subject Legal Claim on an 10 individual basis through AAA binding arbitration in Sacramento, California.

11 B. Transfer is Necessary As This Court Likely Does Not Have Jurisdiction to Compel 12 Arbitration in Sacramento, California

13 Although 9 U.S.C. § 4 authorizes federal courts to compel arbitration, courts in the Ninth 14 Circuit implementing the statute have held that such authority is limited to compelling arbitration 15 within a court’s jurisdiction. See, e.g., Guo v. Kyani, Inc. No. LA CV17-08257 JAK (GJSx), 2018
 16 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 227744, at *14 (C.D. Cal. July 20, 2018) (“[I]n the Ninth Circuit, a district court 17 may not compel arbitration in a district other than the district in which the motion or petition to 18 compel was filed.” (citing Lexington Ins. Co. v. Centex Homes, 795 F. Supp. 2d 1084, 1091 (D.
 19 Haw. 2011))).<sup>3</sup> Consequently, once the Court transfers this matter to the Eastern District of

21 <sup>2</sup> Although the issue of enforceability of the Terms of Service is not directly before this Court, the 22 parties have expressly delegated the determination of enforceability to the arbitrator by 23 incorporating the AAA Consumer Arbitration Rules. See Brennan v. Opus Bank, 796 F.3d 1125, 24 1130 (9th Cir. 2015) (“[G]ateway issues [of arbitrability] can be expressly delegated to the 25 arbitrator where ‘the parties clearly and unmistakably’ [do so.]” (quoting AT&T Techs., Inc. v. Commc’ns Workers of Am., 475 U.S. 643, 649 (1986))); Brennan, 796 F.3d at 1130 (“Now that 26 the question regarding incorporation of the AAA rules is squarely before us, we hold that 27 incorporation of the AAA rules constitutes clear and unmistakable evidence that contracting parties agreed to arbitrate arbitrability.”); Ravera Decl. Ex. 3 at 9–10.

28 <sup>3</sup> The Ninth Circuit has not directly addressed the question as to whether a defendant can move to 29 compel arbitration outside of a district court’s jurisdiction. See Cont'l Grain Co. v. Dant & Russell, 30 Inc., 118 F.2d 967, 969 (9th Cir. 1941) (affirming District Court of Oregon’s order to compel

1 California, McClatchy will exercise its contractual right to move to compel arbitration in 2 Sacramento, as agreed to by the parties in the Terms of Service.

3 The majority of the factors a court considers in deciding a motion to transfer further weigh 4 in favor of a transfer of this Action. As noted above, analysis of motions to transfer based on 5 enforcing a valid forum-selection clause does not give weight to a plaintiff's selection of forum 6 or consider the private interests of the parties. Atl. Marine, 571 U.S. at 63–64. Thus, the only 7 factors left to consider are the public-interest considerations, i.e., “administrative difficulties 8 flowing from court congestion; the ‘local interest in having localized controversies decided at 9 home’; . . . the avoidance of unnecessary problems in conflict of laws . . . ; and the unfairness of 10 burdening citizens in an unrelated forum with jury duty.” Piper Aircraft Co. v. Reyno, 454 U.S.
 11 235, 241 n.6 (1981) (quoting Gulf Oil Corp. v. Gilbert, 330 U.S. 501, 509 (1947)). Here, there is 12 no “local interest” because the Complaint alleges claims on behalf of a nationwide putative class 13

14 arbitration in Oregon despite arbitration clause identifying New York because the plaintiff, 15 “having invoked the jurisdiction of the United States District Court for Oregon is hardly in a 16 position to complain that it has exercised that jurisdiction in accordance with the statute giving it 17 jurisdiction”); Textile Unlimited v. A..bmhand Co., 240 F.3d 781, 785 (9th Cir. 2001) (noting that 18 Section 4 “confines the arbitration to the district in which the petition to compel is filed” but doing 19 so in the context of a motion to enjoin pending arbitration). However, most district courts in the 20 Ninth Circuit, while “sympathetic to Defendants’ argument that Plaintiffs should not be allowed 21 to avoid the contractual place-of-arbitration clause simply by filing suit in another judicial 22 district,” have interpreted the language of Continental Grain and Textile Unlimited to be “a broad 23 statement that a court may not compel arbitration in another judicial district.” Larson v. Speetjens, 24 No. C 05–3176 SBA, 2006 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 87481, at *7–8 (N.D. Cal. Nov. 17, 2006). But see 25 Sovak v. Chugai Pharm. Co., 280 F.3d 1266, 1271 n.1 (9th Cir. 2002) (affirming Southern District 26 of California court’s order compelling arbitration in Chicago because the plaintiff had waived the 27 argument by not raising it in the opposition to the motion to compel). There is a circuit split as to whether courts can compel arbitration outside of their jurisdiction. Compare Econo-Car Int’l v.
Antilles Car Rentals, 499 F.2d 1391, 1394 (3d Cir. 1974) (“[Section 4’s] requirement that arbitration take place in the district court where the petition is filed is clear and unequivocal.”) with Dupuy–Busching Gen. Agency, Inc. v. Ambassador Ins. Co., 524 F.2d 1275, 1278 (5th Cir. 1975) (“[W]here the party seeking to avoid arbitration brings a suit for injunctive relief in a district other than that in which arbitration is to take place under the contract, the party seeking arbitration may assert its Section 4 right to have the arbitration agreement performed in accordance with the terms of the agreement.”). Therefore, in an abundance of caution, McClatchy is requesting this Court transfer this action to the Eastern District of California.

1 that could have been brought in any federal court if the Terms of Service did not include a binding 2 arbitration clause with a class action waiver. Also because the suit is a class action, keeping the 3 case in the Western District of Washington will not ameliorate any conflict of law issues or the 4 burden placed on a citizen to have jury duty for claims unrelated to this forum. Accordingly, these 5 administrative considerations support transfer of the litigation to the Eastern District of California 6 so that it can compel arbitration in an AAA forum, as agreed to by the parties.

7       Although the Eastern District of California has a slightly longer median resolution time 8 than the Western District of Washington, the difference is a modest two months. See RJN Exs. B– 9 C. Even so, Plaintiffs have waited to bring their Complaint, with claims allegedly arising in several 10 instances more than a year ago. See ECF No. 1 ¶¶ 45, 62.

11 In light of the factors overall weighing in favor of transfer, and given the Supreme Court's 12 acknowledgement that “[b]ecause th[e] [public–interest] factors will rarely defeat a transfer 13 motion, the practical result is that forum–selection clauses should control except in unusual cases,” 14 Atl. Marine, 571 U.S. at 64, transferring this case to the Eastern District of California is proper.

CONCLUSION

16 The parties expressly agreed that the sole venue and forum for resolving disputes between 17 them is binding AAA arbitration in Sacramento, California on an individual basis. As this Court 18 may not be permitted to compel the parties to arbitrate their claims in Sacramento, California, 19 McClatchy respectfully requests the Court transfer this case to the Eastern District of California, 20 so that it can enforce the binding arbitration clause in the governing Terms of Service.
